

PRESS RELEASE

Mclver Wealth Management Consulting Group makes an annual tradition of supporting CKNW Orphans' Fund Pledge Day

MCIVER WEALTH MANAGEMENT CONSULTING GROUP MAKES AN ANNUAL TRADITION OF SUPPORTING CKNW ORPHANS' FUND PLEDGE DAY

Vancouver, BC, December 10, 2013 – On Friday, the Mclver Wealth Management Consulting Group at Richardson GMP joined local celebrities, choirs and community leaders in the 36th Annual CKNW Orphans' Fund Pledge Day radio-thon.

Since 1945, the CKNW Orphans' Fund has been working to enhance the lives of children with physical, mental and social challenges living in BC communities. Through bursaries and funding for specialized therapies and equipment, the Fund has been making a difference in the lives of special needs children and their families for decades.

Misako Yamamoto, Mark Jasayko, Neil Mclver, and Karm Bhatti of Mclver Wealth Management Consulting Group present their CKNW Orphans' Fund donation to CKNW radio host Mike Cambell.

Mclver Wealth Management Consulting Group, on behalf of both team members and clients, presented a donation in the amount of $5,000 to help the Fund continue its good work.

"We are proud to support a charity like the CKNW Orphans' Fund that brings promise and hope to children living with challenges in our communities. We believe so strongly in the Fund's ability to make a difference that participating in the Radio-thon has become an annual tradition for our team," says Neil Mclver, Director, Wealth Management.

Mclver Wealth Management Consulting Group encourages other business leaders to become involved in helping children in need in British Columbia.

About Mclver Wealth Management

The Mclver Wealth Management Consulting Group at Richardson GMP provides high-quality, customized investment advice, service and solutions to successful high net worth Canadians. With over 20 years of experience, the Group knows the key to success is fostering client relationships based on trust and integrity and offering wealth management solutions rooted in conservative guidance.

CKNW Orphans' Fund

Established by radio station CKNW, the CKNW Orphans' Fund has been operating since 1945. This organization is dedicated to promoting the health and welfare of physically and mentally challenged and disadvantaged children in BC communities. Throughout the years, the Fund has awarded more than 30 million dollars to over 200,000 special needs and vulnerable children, their families and the organizations working on their behalf.

